

FREELANCE JOURNALISTS

Locations:

Ankara, Athens, Beijing, Brussels, Bucharest, Edinburgh, Helsinki, Ljubljana, London, Moscow, Oslo, Paris, Prague, Riga, Stockholm, Warsaw, Sofia, Tallinn, Vienna, Washington DC

Topics:

Competition, political affairs, regional policies, trade, social affairs, health policies, LGBTI, youth and education

EUobserver is seeking experienced freelance journalists to expand our coverage of current affairs, politics, trade and economy in the EU member states as well as coverage of trade, economic and diplomatic ties between the EU and the United States, Russia, China and EU neighbourhood countries.

The journalist must be experienced covering politics, must be familiar with the big political issues of the day, and have broad EU knowledge.

The journalist must be able to write articles in English to EUobserver's style and standards.

The journalist will be paid a flat fee per article.

Requirements:

- College degree or equivalent, preferably in journalism
- At least 2 years of experience as a journalist for a news organisation in the journalist's country of coverage
- Ability to demonstrate comprehensive knowledge of the EU institutions, policies and policymaking
- Attentive to detail, with an interest in the impact of politics on society
- Ability to write clearly and structure stories well
- Written and verbal fluency in English

How to apply:

- 1-page cover letter and CV
- Sample of recently published writing (maximum 500 words)
- Closing date: Ongoing

Please email your cover letter, CV and writing sample with the subject line 'Freelance Journalist' to jobs@euobserver.com.

Only candidates shortlisted for an interview will be notified. We will unfortunately not be able to give feedback to candidates who have not been shortlisted.

ABOUT EUOBSERVER

Reporting on the European Union since 2000, EUobserver is an independent, not-for-profit news organisation that publishes daily news reports, analyses and investigations from Brussels and the EU member states. We are an indispensable news source for anyone who wants to know what is going on in the EU.